CHARLESTOWN.

The General Aſſembly of this Province of South Carolina having met according to Prorogation on Tueſday laſt, the Honourable THOMAS BROUGHTON Eſq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over this His Majeſty's Province, made the following Speech:

Gentlemen of his Majeſty's Honourable Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly,

I Hope the long Receſs of the General Aſſembly has given you full time, ſo to fix your private Concerns, that nothing can now employ your Thoughts but the Publick, in which, I flatter myſelf, you will with utmoſt Zeal, and the Reſpect we owe to his moſt ſacred Majeſty's Paternal Care of us his diſtant Subjects, diſpatch all the Affairs that ſhall come before you, in ſuch manner as ſhall demonſtrate, that his Royal Prerogative, and the Wellfare of this His Province is what we have neareſt at Heart.

And in order to evince our ſincere meaning towards that deſirable End, I earneſtly recommend to your Conſideration the paſſing the Tax-Bill, on which the publick Faith is engaged, and which being paſſed early, will be means not only to ſupport our Credit, but encreaſe it.

The ſeveral Meſſages that have been ſent you, in relation to the Fortifications, and the ſeveral Meetings of Committees of both Houſes on that Subject, make it almoſt unneceſſary for me to ſay any more on that Head, excepting that I cannot avoid repeating my former Inſtances to you, that you will ſeriouſly turn your Attention on that Subject, ſo that the old Fortifications may be repair'd, and ſuch Batteries erected as ſhall be thought proper; the Affairs and Conteſts in Europe ſeeming to be as much unſettled (as far as we hear) as they were when I required your Meeting in General Aſſembly on that Subject.

And as the Matter I have laſt mentioned appears to be of the greateſt Moment to this Province, I cannot leave it, till I have recommended to you to enter into ſuch Meaſures, either by an additional Law, or what other Method may be agreed on, not only to ſupply the Defects that have been complain'd of, in the Law for repairing the Front-Line &c. but likewiſe to inveſt the Commiſſioners for thoſe Works, with ſuch further Power, as ſhall be thought requiſite to enable them, to purſue an Undertaking ſo beneficial.

I muſt likewiſe deſire of you, to take the Trade to the Indian Nations in general into Conſideration, and in particular that to the Creek Nation. I ſhall order the Commiſſioner's Journal to be laid before you, which will fully inform you of the falſe Reports ſpread there to our Detriment, and at the ſame time convince you, of what Service it was to this Province, that the Commiſſioner was diſpatched to them.

Mr. Beswicke, who came over with His Majeſty's Sign Manual for Clerk of the Market of Charles-Town, being lately dead, I have appointed Mr. Johnſon to ſucceed him; the ſaid Johnſon acted in that Station before Mr. Beswicke came to the Province, and gave general Satisfaction.

And on this Occaſion I muſt remind you of what I ſaid to you in my firſt Speech, that His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed to appoint a Clerk for the Market, the Laws relating thereto ought to be reviſed, vised, and in case of any Defect, to be supply'd with additional ones.

This is all that occurs to me at present, and I will from time to time, acquaint you, with what shall be necessary. I recommend Unanimity and Dispatch in your Proceedings, by which means you will prove yourselves dutiful and loyal Subjects to his most sacred Majesty, gratefully sensible of the Bounties he has already bestowed on this his Province, and make your selves further deserving of his Royal Protection.

I must yet further recommend to you, to revive the necessary Matters contain'd in the several Bills that have dayn some time before your House, for regulating of Charlestown, the want of which you must be very sensible, causes great Complaints among the Inhabitants.

THOMAS BROUGHTON.

To the Honourable Thomas Broughton, Esq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majesty's Prrovince of South-Carolina.

The humble ADDRESS of the Commons House of Assembly.

May it please your Honour,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of this his Province, beg leave to return Your Honour our hearty Thanks, for your kind Speech this Day delivered to us, and to assure your Honour that we are met with hearts full of Zeal to Dispatch all Affairs that shall come before us, with a just regard to the Duty we owe his most sacred Majesty and the Wellfare of this his Province.

We shall not only take proper Measures for Defraying the Charges of the Government for the current Year, but also do what in us lies to put this Province into a proper Posture of Defence.

The Indian Affairs being a matter of very great Importance, when the Papers relating thereto are laid before us, We shall take the same under our serious Consideration and we take this Opportunity of thanking your Honour for your great Care, in sending the Commissioner to the Creek Nation at so seasonable a Juncture.

As to the other matters recommended to us in your Honour's Speeech, we shall take Care to give the same the necessary dispatch.

By order of the House,

PAUL JENYS Speaker.

On Friday last arrived here Captain Baker in six Weeks from the Lands End, by whom from the publick Prints to the 4th of October we have the following Advices.

LONDON, Sept. 18.

A Saloon of a very extraordinary Nature has been lately finish'd at Paris, design'd as a Present for one of the Polish Grandees of King Stanislaus's Party These Gentlemen not having any certain Residence at present, 'twas necessary their Apartments should be made to carry with them; and accordingly this fine Room of 20 Feet square whose carving, gilding and other Ornaments, vie with any in Europe, is to be taken to Pieces, and pack'd up with all the Ease imaginable, even to the Marble Chimney-piece and the Glass Windows.

His Excellency Mr Horace Walpole has lately presented a new Memorial to the States General, with relation to the present Posture of Affairs, and to conjure them to take such vigorous Resolutions as may put them in a Condition to secure the Balance of Power in Europe, before it becomes irretrievable.

His Excellency has likewise deliver'd to their High Mightinesses, his Majesty's Reply to the Answer they made to the famous Memorial which Mr. Walpole presented some time ago, to persuade them to an Augmentation of their Forces: This Reply is said to run to this Effect; 'That his Majesty is very much surpriz'd not to 'find in their High Mightinesses the Dispositions he flatter'd himself they entertain'd; that the Excuse they 'alledge of having kept their Land Forces upon the Foot 'of Augmentation, whilst those of Great Britain remain'd 'as they were, is by no means to be allow'd, seeing the 'Exigences of Affairs requir'd of the British Court only 'an Increase of their Naval Strength: That the King 'was very glad to learn a good Example would have its 'proper Effect upon them, and that if they would promise 'him to follow, he would lead the Way, where their 'own Honour, and the Welfare and Safety of the Liberties of Europe, waited ready to conduct them"

About the same time that Mr. Walpole presented his last Memorial to the States General, Count d'Uhlfeldt the Emperor's Minister, Count Golowskin, Ambassador and Plenipotentiary on the part of the Czarina, and General Dubrosse, Minister from King Augustus as Elector of Saxony, deliver'd Memorials likewise to their High Mightinesses.

The Memorial given in by the Russian Ambassador, is penn'd with great Spirit, and in the strongest Terms that can be conceiv'd: Her Czarian Majesty does not seem to think, that after the moving Representation which the Emperor has made to the States General of the dangerous Consequences of the present War, their High Mightinesses have paid all that Attention thereto which there was room to expect, and the Treaties actually subsisting naturally requir'd: She hopes their High Mightinesses are not inclin'd to place any Project of France, with relation to the Affairs of Poland, as a Basis for a general Negociation, and declares, that she can by no means dispence with any thing that favours the Court of France, in Prejudice of his Imperial Majesty, and that should any Power do otherwise, she will be oblig'd to take such Measures as she shall find proper on the Occasion, being resolv'd to promote by all Means whatever, the Interests of his Imperial Majesty, the Tranquility of the North, and the Balance of Power in Europe.

Our Letters from the Hague mention, that their High Mightinesses Deputies had immmedialy a Conference with Count Golowskin upon the Receipt of his Memorial, and desir'd his Excellency to acquaint her Czarian Majesty, in answer thereto, that their High Mightinesses had indeed interceded formerly with her Majesty in behalf of Poland and Dantzick, Places in whose Liberties their High Mightinesses Subjects were interested; but that they know of no such intimate Engagements with her as would excuse them, should they pretend to meddle with her Affairs, and admonish her to the Executions of any of her Treaties.

Sept. 20. Yesterday Morning her Majesty receiv'd an Express from the King at Hanover, and at Noon a Messenger came to the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wager at the Admiralty-Office, to attend her Majesty immediately at Kensington.

'In the Evening a Meſſenger was diſpatch'd to Sir John Norris at Lizbon; and a Report was current ſoon after, that Sir John will return home as ſoon as the Brazil Fleet is arriv'd.

On Thurſday his Excellency Prince Cantimer had an Audience of the Queen, and notify'd to her Majeſty the Concluſion of the Treaty lately ſign'd between the Czarina his Miſtreſs, and the Senate of Sweden; and the ſame is a Renewal of the Defenſive Alliance which had a long Time ſubſiſted between thoſe States, but was then expir'd.

'Tis now ſaid, the new Propoſals lately made by the Emperor to France, are not accepted.

Mr. Del Campos the Portugueſe Secretary, has, within theſe three Months paſt, laid out 92000 l. in warlike Utenſils for the King his Maſter.

The Report goes that Prince Eugene will take his final Leave of the Army, and that the Prince of Anhault Deſſau will be made Generaliſſimo in his ſtead

'Tis ſaid that Prince Eugene is to take Munich in his way to Vienna, to execute a Commiſſion with the Elector of Bavaria.

Sept. 24. On Sunday laſt Mr. Bohee, one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers in Ordinary, arriv'd at Kenſigton from Hanover, which Place he left on Wedneſday laſt about One o'Clock

The King remov'd the 10th Inſtant from Herenhauſen to Hanover, where his Majeſty intends to reſide till his Departure for England. On the 11th the King took a general Review of the two Regiments of Horſe, one Regiment of Dragoons, and five Regiments of Foot, which were ſome time ago order'd thither. On the 12th the two Regiments of Horſe, and that of Dragoons, paſſed in Review ſeparately before the King, went thro' their Evolutions on Horſeback, diſmounted, formed into Batalions, performed their Exerciſe and Firings, remounted and march'd by his Majeſty in Squadrons. On the 13th the King review'd the five Regiments of Foot alſo ſeparately, which perform'd their Exerciſe, Evolutions and Firings; after which they drew up in a Line, and march'd by his Majeſty in Diviſions. His Majeſty was extremely well pleaſed with the fine Appearance the ſeveral Regiments made, and with the exact and regular Performance of their Exerciſes. The Count de Seinſheim, Miniſter of State of the Elector of Bavaria, and his Envoy Extraordinary to the King, having, on the 14th, obtain'd his Audience of Leave of his Majeſty, ſet out the next Morning on his Return to Munich; as did alſo the Baron de Haaſlang, Chamberlain of the ſaid Elector, who had accompanied the ſaid Count de Seintheim thither. On the 15th M. de Hammerſtein, Privy Counſellor of the Elector of Cologne, and his Envoy at this Court, deliver'd his Credential Letters, and was admitted to an Audience of his Majeſty.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Sept 30, N. S.

'The Reſolution which the Emperor has taken to place 'a Body of Men in Winter Quarters in the Netherlands, 'gives no little Uneaſineſs here, ſince 'tis conceiv'd, that 'theſe Troops being ſo near to the Frontiers of France, 'will pay as ſmall a Regard to the Neutrality of the Coun'try, as Marſhal Coigny's Army has done to that of the 'Elector Palatine, whoſe Territories to the left of the 'Rhine are entirely ſtrip'd, notwithſtanding the Neutra'lity which his Highneſs ſettled with that General, and 'kept on his part with the greateſt Nicety imaginable. 'Their High Mightineſſes Deputies have been lately to 'talk over this Affair with the Imperial Miniſter here; 'but his Excellency anſwer'd, that as the Emperor had 'the Misfortune not to be ſuccour'd by his antient and na'tural Friends, he was oblig'd to make the beſt of his 'bad Situation, and to endeavour to draw the Enemy far'ther from the Frontiers of the Empire, and to remove 'the Seat of War into the Heart of France if he ſhould 'be able: The Deputies reply'd by repreſenting the ill 'Conſequences of this Deſign; but his Excellency rejoin'd 'that ſeeing his Imperial Majeſty was as it were abandon'd 'by his Friends, he ought to be left to himſelf to deal 'with his Enemies, and was compell'd to risk any Sacrifice 'rather than conclude a diſhonourable Peace.

'Tis aſſur'd, the King of France has again declar'd, 'that he was ready to conſent to an Armiſtice, provided 'the Affairs of Poland be kept in Statu quo, referring himſelf to a Congreſs for a proper Satisfaction for King Staniſlaus.

'Tis reported here, that there is a private Treaty actually on Foot between the Emperor and Great Britain; and another for taking into the Pay of the latter, in caſe of need, 8000 Heſſians, and 8000 Swedes The Court of Verſailles have taken a Diſguſt at the Negotiations carrying on by the King of Sweden and with his Britannick Majeſty and the Czarina, and ſtill delay to exchange the Ratification of their late Treaty of Subſidy.

'The Negotiations at Hanover are upon a very good Foot, and the Quadruple Alliance formerly mention'd may be actually ſaid to be concluded; his Britannick Majeſty is ſtay'd in Germany by the Pains he takes to giv the laſt finiſhing ſtroke to this important Affair, by bringe ing into it the King of Denmark and the Elector of Bavaria, the former of whom is ſaid to be offer'd an Addition to his Subſidy, and the latter to have the new Conceſſions made him by the Emperor, ſecur'd to him under the Guarantee of a certain Power."

Sept 27. His Imperial Majeſty ſeeming in earneſt to ſend 40,000 Men to take Winter-Quarters in the Netherlands, the French King has order'd an equal Number of his Troops to do the like in L'Iſle, Doway, Valenciennes, and the other principal Towns of Flanders.

October 2. On Turſday Morning the Corps of the late Lord Viſcount Howe was landed at Limehouſe-Hole, from on board the Conſtancy, Capt. Green, from Barbadoes, and immediately put into a Hearſe, in order to be carried down to its Place of Interment in Nottinghamſhire.

The Lady Dowager Howe was pleaſed the ſame Day, to ſend by the Rev. Mr Bradford, late Chaplain to his Lordſhip, a handſome Preſent of Guineas, to be diſtributed among the Crew of the ſaid Ship.

CHARLES-TOWN, Nov 29.

By Paſſengers that came over in Capt. Baker we are inform'd, that whilſt they lay at Anchor at Sheerneſs, Sir Ch: Wager with his Fleet went over to fetch the King.

That Mr. Scott (who married Coll. Fenwicke's Daughter) was gone with the Yachts to fetch the King from Helvoetſluys, and that he was to have a 20 Gun Ship at his Return.

Private Letters from London inform us, that James Oglethorpe Eſq; was to ſet out about the middle of October for Georgia, attended by the Hawk Sloop Man of War Captain Gaſcoigne, who is to be ſtationed at the ſaid Place.

On Thurſday laſt James Wright Eſq; received a Commiſſion from his Honour the Lieutenant Governor in Council, before whom he was ſworn in, took the State Oaths & ſigned the Teſt, for the Offices of Remembrancer, Clerk of the Pleas and Eſtreats of the Court of Exchequer, the ſaid Gentleman having obtained his Majeſty's Sign Manual for thoſe Offices.
